

PROFILE

Kim Lewis

/ Partner

Kim has a passion for improving business results through technology implementations. Throughout his various project, account, and practice leadership roles he has demonstrated his ability to assist clients in implementing business application software to improve revenue and reduce costs, improve productivity, establish standard business processes, develop enterprise data consistency, and enhance communications with customers and employees. Kim has demonstrated leadership in facilitation, change management, and project quality.

representative clients

Things Remembered, Luxottica Retail (brands include LensCrafters, Sunglass Hut, Sears Optical, Pearl Vision, BJ's Optical, and Illori), ACCO Brands, Clopay, Invacare, Manitowoc Food Services, Getty Images, Eaton, Key Bank

brilliant moment / camping in Yosemite National Park

client snapshots

/ Implemented redesigned gift personalization website on IBM WebSphere Commerce platform to improve conversion rates and increase revenue.

/ Implemented new IBM WebSphere Commerce package based website with advanced Endeca search capabilities. The site was integrated with a leading edge interactive front end via service oriented architecture.

/ Implemented business portal with Oracle iStore to facilitate expanding a channel of revenue through the automation of the ordering and scheduling of product installation.

/ Established Brulant's Commerce Solution Center to improve delivery quality and fulfilled Project QA Leader role for major accounts with fees ranging from $1 million to $15 million.

experience

Oracle USA/Oracle Corporation – Sr. Portfolio Director, Sr. Practice Leader

Responsible for consulting project P&L, and project managers in North Central Commercial region. Practice leader for 40 consultants in North Central Supply Chain Practice.

Cap Gemini Ernst & Young / Ernst & Young – Vice President/Partner, Senior Manager, Manager

ERP practice leader of 200 consultants in high growth business unit. Account/Project Partner for clients in various industries implementing technology solutions.

ESL Inc., A subsidiary of TRW – Project Leader, Business Analyst

Provided project oversight, requirements analysis and training for multiple projects as part of overall program replacing core business control systems.